

Cheap Apples

In assorting our apples we have a good many No. 2 or culls. They are all right for immediate use and cheap at the price.

Per Bushel 60c
At the car on R. R. track
Tomorrow Only

Anadarko Daily Democrat

Published Every Evening Except Sunday

A. S. ROBERTS, EDITOR

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
Delivered by Carrier 5c per Week
By Mail, payable in Advance $1 per Year

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1908.

Do Your Shopping Early

This is the month of Christmas shopping. It is well to remember also that next month will be the month for bill paying.

No merchant wants you to buy more than you can pay for. People often buy more than they need or what they do not need because they put off their shopping until the Christmas rush. Then in their hurry they buy without discrimination.

It is well then to do your shopping early. Buy today and tomorrow and next week. You will confer a favor upon the retail dealer, and you will do a benefit to yourself.

During the holiday times last year the country was in the throes of one of the most severe panics that ever swept over it.

We, of the South, did not feel it, but in New York and Chicago during every day in December thousands of people were thrown out of employment.

Clerks in the great retail stores knew that with the close of the holiday shopping their positions would be gone. This year, however, it is different. The panic is a memory with a general revival of trade and the outlook for the future is good.

Holiday buying will probably be as great as it was in the year 1906, and for this reason alone you should buy your presents early, because the week previous to Christmas will be one of extraordinary activity.

A Westerner named Die is a candidate for the United States senate. What's the matter with the dead house of representatives?

A St. Louis woman is suing for a divorce because her husband insisted on going with her to a wedding in a red-striped shirt.

A Richmond editor died the other day worth $750,000. Our observation has been that the only rich editors are dead editors.

Baltimore comes to the front with a Bryan 1912 Club. The members of that club evidently believe in buying 'em early.

Those Kansas persons who prayed for a tariff on zinc ought to be treated to a ride in an aeroplane during a high gale.

The state that desires internal development will make short work of the legislative freak or fanatic.

We infer from what Messrs. Rockefeller and Archbold say that Standard Oil is a very slippery business.

Shall Uncle Joe Canon be allowed to continue giving members of congress the silent treatment.

Now that Mr. Carnegie has confessed, his fellow Night Riders are very indignant.

G. A. R. Notice

All members of Wm. McKinley Post, G. A. R. are requested to be at the meeting Friday evening for election of officers and other important business

Practical Fashions

LADIES' THREE-PIECE SKIRT.

Paris Pattern No. 2645. All Seams Allowed.—A pretty and fashionable skirt to be used for a separate garment, or as part of a costume, is here illustrated. It is cut in three pieces and closes at the left side of the front with buttons and button-holes ornamenting the right side. It is fitted over the hips by darts, and the fullness of the back is confined by an inverted box-pleat. The model may be developed to advantage in any of the popular winter materials, and is cut in medium sweep or round length, according to taste. The pattern is in seven sizes—22 to 34 inches waist measure. For 26 waist, the skirt, made of material with nap, requires 2 1/2 yards 20 inches wide, 5 1/2 yards 36 inches wide, 4 1/2 yards 42 inches wide, or 4 1/2 yards 54 inches wide; 1 1/2 yards of braid. Width of lower edge about 4 1/2 yards.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department," of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

NO. 2645. SIZE.....
NAME.....
TOWN.....
STREET AND NO.....
STATE.....

IS RECIPE OF FAMOUS CHEF.

New Salad That Has Caught Popular Fancy in New York.

For several years there has been served at the Waldorf-Astoria a salad called the Waldorf salad, which was a joy to the appetite of the bon vivant, but a new salad has been introduced that eclipses it. It is called the Salad Astoria. Not only is it a joy to the appetite, but so attractively put together in its mosaic arrangement of colors that one hesitates to demolish it. Once broken and served it proves so delicious that every woman who partakes of it at once determines to learn how to make one just like it at home.

Oscar says it is the simplest and most beautiful of luncheon salads. It is made by splitting a head of romaine salad lengthways, laying one-half on a plate with the heart side up, then closely placing alternate quarters of orange, grape fruit and Bartlett pears on the romaine until it is fully covered, finishing off each end with half of a pickled walnut, decorating the top with tiny strips of green and red peppers, making it look as if tied with narrow ribbons. Then, last of all, pouring over the whole a dainty French dressing and serving.—New York Press.

BAKING-DAY QUERIES.

Here are answers to every "how much" question that can arise on baking day:

One cup of sugar will sweeten one quart of any mixture to be served chilled or frozen.

One teaspoon of extract will flavor one quart of custard or pudding.

One tablespoonful of extract will flavor one quart of mixture to be frozen.

One level teaspoon of salt will season one quart of soup, sauce or vegetable.

The ordinary French dressing (three tablespoons oil, two and one-half teaspoons vinegar, one-fourth level teaspoon salt, one-eighth level teaspoon pepper) will moisten one pint of salad.

One tablespoon of water or milk should be allowed for each egg in an omelet.

Allow four eggs to each quart of milk in making cup custards.

Allow from four to six eggs to each quart of milk in making a custard to be turned from the mold.

Rice will absorb three times its measure of water and a larger quantity of milk or stock.

One ounce of butter and one-half ounce of flour are used to thicken one cup of liquid in making a sauce.

Allow two level teaspoons of baking powder to each cup of flour when no eggs are used.

The American eagle says it is a sad reflection for him when he thinks how bald he is, and remembers all the bare he has had.

The pert parrot says the great horned owl is on the blink. But then the parrot grew up in a land that is always bowery.

The sand-hill crane stuck his long beak through the wicket in the deer yard yesterday, and the elk said: "Hello, bird!"—Elk Mott, in Judge.

HAMMOND

is Closing Out
His Season's Stock Of

Millinery

AT HALF PRICES

Ladies $10 Hats at $5.00
Ladies $5 Hats at $2.50
Ladies $4 Hats at $2.00

Your Choice for Half Price

250 Pairs of Shoes at Cost
50 Pieces of Dress Goods at Cost
Blankets and Flannels Very Cheap
Hammond Dry Goods Co.
Anadarko, Okla.

Fresh, Tender, Juicy Meats

Pure, Clean Groceries

The Best the Market Affords Always in Stock

Prompt Delivery

HARDY & ALDRICH

Prices Right

Phone No 126

A SHORT TALK On The Laundry Business

There was a time, perhaps when some of our people might have had excuses for sending their laundry out of town, but it is not so now and the one who does it, Business Men especially, is a knocker. We positively can do our laundry work as well as you can get it done any place, and to those who want to be satisfied, we do no fail to give satisfaction.

Our business is increasing nicely, we have many happy and satisfied patrons.

Brother Knocker get on our list and become a Booster.

We do Steam Cleaning and Pressing.

Men's Suits.

Men's Overcoats.

Ladies' Suits and Skirts.

Ladies' Waists, silk or wool.

Ladies' Coats.

We can help with your house cleaning, such as

Lace Curtains.

Rugs, Carpets, Portieres, etc.

Yours to please

Anadarko

Ice and Laundry Co.

Hammond is offering ladies finest trimmed hats at one half price. 265-6t

$50 Life scholarship, $35. Special rates good short time only. Text books free. Work for board guaranteed. Big saving. Write Mgr. Oklahoma City Business college, Oklahoma City Okla. 265-4t

THE 300 DAYS END

BOUNCE TO WHICH NONE OF US TRAVEL ALONE.

"For No Man Liveth to Himself, and No Man Dieth to Himself"—Beautiful allegory of the Lone Bread Day.

The man was dying. His hand, kindly soul, had sent for the vicar of the parish, and when the sick man heard a step on the stairs he strove through the agony of almost insupportable pain to unclench his hand and smooth his brow. As the parson—port-facéd and plain-faced—entered, the man smiled a twisted smile. "Ah, padre, old chap, come to greet the parson great, eh? I'm afraid I'm not a very promising subject for consolation."

But the clergyman, too, was a man so weary of time beating about the bush, but came straight to the point. "No, I'm not here tonight to preach, but—we've known each other some time, and lately I've come to look on you as a friend"—here the man turned his head away and grinned quickly at the cheap wall-paper—"how is it between you and your God?"

The man raised himself in the bed. "Look here," he said, "I have lived my life without him and am I now to go to him whom I have defied whining for mercy? I have lived alone and I die alone. To you—"

He fell back in a fresh paroxysm of torture; the bedstead quivered like the shaft of a racing screw under the grip of his one hand, while with the other he fiercely motioned his visitor to the door. The latter, seeing his presence was, for the moment, useless, retired—to spend long hours of the night on his knees in the lonely vicarage agonizing for the soul of one he loved. When he called next morning the end had come.

The long agony was over, and the naked soul lay alone.

Only vast silence and limitless space. The man stood erect and cried: "God! God! See me! Know me! Throughout my life on earth, I have transgressed thy laws, knowing thy will and thy power. Judge me. Cast me to the hell Thou has devised for me, and try whether, through all thy torments, the creature will not mock at the Creator. Here, a man, I stand before the Almighty for judgment, alone!"

There came no voice, no stirring of the calm, clear depths, but the man was shaken by the question:

"Art thou alone?"

Suddenly there came pressing on him from every side presences, faces.

The face of a gentle lady, who, through all, had loved her boy—the face of a stern, gray-haired man, hoping ever for the son of his body—the sweet face of a brave girl, eating out her heart in lonely, trustful longing for the one she loved—men's faces, full of belief in the bright promise and friendship of old college days—children's faces—the brown eyes of faithful dogs—these all oppressed him, thronged around him, while through his being swept the words:

"For no man liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself!" Through space the cry rang out:

"Have mercy, God!"

Our
Clothing Stock
Is Going
At Prices
That save you
Dollars

WHEN we said that we were going to close out our entire stock of Clothing, we meant just what we said, and have been making prices that convince everyone who comes to our store and looks, of the correctness of our statement. And the prices have been moving the goods. Hadn't you better come in this week and select that suit you have been wanting? You'll save money by buying now.

Max Goldman & Co.
Anadarko's
POPULAR PRICED STORE.